WELCOME & TOURNAMENT OVERVIEW

Welcome to Pharaohs Bowl 2027

Get ready for the third edition of Pharaohs Bowl, an exciting international junior tennis tournament bringing together young players from different countries for a week of competition, development and unforgettable experiences.

Hosted at El Gouna Tennis Club on Egypt's stunning Red Sea coast, Pharaohs Bowl combines competitive international tennis with the unique atmosphere of a world-class holiday destination.

Whether you are competing for your next title, gaining international match experience or enjoying a tennis holiday with your family, Pharaohs Bowl offers much more than a tournament.

TOURNAMENT AT A GLANCE

Tournament Dates	23–29 January 2027
Location	El Gouna Tennis Club, El Gouna, Egypt
Categories	Boys and Girls, Under 10 to Under 16
Tour	TEN-PRO Global Junior Tour
Tournament Format	Multiple-match international junior tennis competition
Minimum Matches	Four matches per registered category, subject to tournament regulations and exceptional circumstances

MORE MATCHES. MORE EXPERIENCE.

Pharaohs Bowl is designed to give junior players valuable competitive experience through multiple matches against opponents from different countries.

Players may register in their own age category and, if eligible, one additional category immediately above their main age group.

For example, a player eligible for Under 12 may also enter Under 13, subject to the tournament's age eligibility and registration regulations.

This gives players an opportunity to gain additional match experience throughout the tournament week.

TRAVEL & TRANSPORTATION

Getting to El Gouna

ARRIVING BY AIR

The nearest airport is Hurghada International Airport (HRG), which serves domestic and international flights.

El Gouna is approximately 30–40 minutes by car from Hurghada International Airport, depending on traffic and your accommodation location.

Players and families are responsible for arranging their own airport transfers and transportation.

AIRPORT TRANSFERS

PRIVATE TRANSFERS & TAXIS

Private airport transfers may be arranged in advance through hotels or independent transportation providers.

We recommend confirming the total price, vehicle capacity and pickup arrangements before your arrival.

INDRIVE — RIDE-HAILING APP

inDrive is a transportation app available in Egypt that allows passengers to propose a fare and agree on the trip price with a driver.

As a general indication, a ride from Hurghada International Airport to El Gouna may cost around EGP 600 one way. Actual fares depend on demand, availability, travel time and the agreed trip price.

Everything you need to know

WHAT TO BRING

To make the most of your tournament experience, we recommend bringing:

- Tennis rackets and appropriate tennis shoes
- Comfortable tennis clothing
- Warm-up jacket or sweatshirt
- Water bottle
- Sunscreen and cap
- Personal medication and other essentials
- Passport or national ID
- Registration confirmation
- Any additional equipment needed for training or matches

January evenings in El Gouna can be cool, so bringing warmer clothing is recommended.

BALL BOYS & BALL GIRLS

Ball boys will be available for all tournament matches.

In Egypt, it is customary for players or parents to offer ball boys a small tip in appreciation of their assistance.

A usual amount is approximately EGP 50–100 per match (around €1–€2, depending on exchange rates).

Tipping is entirely voluntary. There is no fixed amount, and it is not a tournament requirement.

TOURNAMENT REGULATIONS

All players are expected to comply with the applicable TEN-PRO Global Junior Tour regulations, including rules relating to age eligibility, competition format, match conduct and scheduling.

Players and parents are encouraged to review the tournament regulations before arrival.
